1. Rules Governing Academic Credit Waiver for 4-Year Technical School General Education English Curriculum (hereinafter as the "Rules") are set forth in accordance with the NKUHT "Rules Governing Academic Credit Exemptions for Students" to help facilitate the General Education English curriculum credit waiver process.

2. Applicable Subjects and Standards

   2.1. Rules are applicable to 4-year Technical School freshmen at NKUHT; however, since Department of Applied English students are subject to independent curricula, they are not bound by the Rules hereunder.

   2.2. When applying for credit waiver, 4-year Technical School freshmen shall enclose a valid certificate of an English language competency test, with the passing score having been attained within two years prior to submission. Scores must meet the following standards (Table I) to be considered in application to waive the following courses (Table II).

Note 1: All 4-Year Technical School students at the NKUHT shall take the following compulsory General Education English curricula: “Language – English (Listening/Speaking) (1), (2), and (3)”, each awarding 2 credits, and “Language – English (Reading/Writing) (1) and (2)”, each awarding 2 credits. All compulsory General Education English curricula amount to 10 credits.

Note 2: “Language – English (Listening/Speaking) (1) and (2)” and “Language – English (Reading/Writing) (1) and (2)” are both consecutive curricula in back-to-back semesters for one academic year, with each curriculum delivered in the respective first and second semesters for two hours a week, totaling four hours a week for both.

3. 4-year Technical School freshmen applying for credit waiver shall apply to the NKUHT Language Center with an original copy and a duplicate photocopy of their supporting documents (test scores/diplomas) starting from the first day of classes of their first semester at NKUHT through the first week of their second semester at NKUHT. Having gathered the list of applicants, the Language Center will examine applicant eligibility and submit the list of eligible names to the Academic Affairs Office. The application is limited to one-time only, and all late applications will not be accepted.

4. The Rules shall be deemed in effect after the reviews and approvals by the Academic Affairs and University Affairs meetings, respectively, as well as the final approval by the President, and so shall any revision be thereafter.
