ENGLISH DAY NOVEMBER 19 WORKSHEET #1

NAME: _____ STUDENT ID#: _____

Exercise 1. Match the idiom with correct meaning

IDIOM		MEANING
A Baker's Dozen		a. Get upset over something that has happened and cannot be changed
Chewing the Fat		b. Something extra special that is added on to what is already good
Cut the Mustard		c. A person that is adored by someone
Eat like a Pig		d. A person who is often in trouble
Sweet as Honey		e. Thirteen
Bad Egg		f. A person who is very intelligent
Smart as a Cookie		g. A person who is lazy and maybe watches TV all the time
Apple of One's Eye		h. An idea to think about
Don't Cry over Spilled Milk		i. Doing something that you really enjoy to do and it is easy for you
Couch Potato		j. Someone who eats a lot
Food for Thought		k. Someone to succeed or come up to expectations
Icing on the Cake		l. Someone who likes to talk about nothing important
Cup of Tea		m. a person who is very kind, friendly

Reference

https://www.sortra.com/keren-rosen-illustrates-classic-idioms-in-a-literal-and-whimsical-way/literal-meanings-of-idioms09/

Worksheet #2: Exercise 2. Game – Each student takes one and explains the idiom

Idiom: Let one's hair down

Meaning: [redacted]

idiom: (my) lips are sealed

Meaning: [redacted]

idiom: Pat on the back

Meaning: [redacted]

Idiom: See eye to eye

Meaning: [redacted]

Idiom: Sweet tooth

Meaning: [redacted]

Idiom: Pull one's leg

Meaning: [redacted]

Idiom: Makes my blood boil

Meaning: [redacted]

Idiom: Rushed off your feet

Meaning: [redacted]

Idiom: In over your head

Meaning: [redacted]

Idiom: All ears

Meaning:

Idiom: Break a leg

Meaning:

Idiom: Cold feet

Meaning:

Idiom: Cost an arm and a leg

Meaning:

Idiom: Cry your heart out

Meaning:

Idiom: Give a hand, lend a hand

Meaning:

Idiom: Head over heels

Meaning:

Idiom: Keep an eye on

Meaning:

idiom: Keep one's chin up

Meaning: